

SOCIETY NEWS

Domestic

Mrs. Will Brandt will receive the Domestic Club Wednesday afternoon.

Surprise

Mrs. Jess Rohrer planned and executed a very clever surprise on her husband Saturday evening, that being the anniversary of his birth. Some twenty five were present and spent the evening with music and cards. The hostess served a fine two course lunch.

Junias

Miss Sadie McCray was hostess for the Junias Monday evening and the usual program dispensed with and a fine Turkey dinner discussed instead. The entire membership was present and a royal good time spent. The visitors were Mrs. Bradley, of Lancaster, Miss Maynard, of Cincinnati and Miss Walker, of Columbus.

Queen of Hearts

Miss Blanche Stroupe very charmingly entertained the Queen of Hearts Club Monday evening and several games of Pedro enjoyed. Mrs. John Brandt carried off the honors, a china olive dish. Miss Stroupe served light refreshments. The visitors were Mrs. Tom Wakely, of Columbus, and Miss Clara Quinn.

Jollity

Mrs. John Buntz received the Jollity Club Monday evening and a good social time was spent by the club and their guests. Vocal and instrumental music was enjoyed.

Mrs. Buntz served an elaborate four course lunch, being assisted by Mrs. Emanuel Wolfe and Miss Carmen Starkey.

The visitors were Mrs. Ike Martin and Miss Carmen Starkey.

Twice Five

Mr. and Mrs. John Dougherty welcomed the Twice Five Club Monday evening. The subject for discussion being "Possibility and Advantages of Church Unity," which was very ably handled by Mr. H. R. Harrington and Judge S. H. Bright. After various remarks by the entire membership the hostess served an elegant Turkey supper. Rev. and Mrs. Wilson, Rev. Buckland and Mr. A. S. Martin, of Salt Lake City, were guests.

Euchre

Miss Lillie Wright very charmingly entertained with Euchre, Tuesday night, honoring her house guest, Miss Ebbinghouse, of Wabash Ind. There were four tables of players and honors taken by Mrs. Harry Ambrose, a silver spoon. The visiting ladies were Mrs. A. K. Smith, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Frank Eberst, Mrs. Ayers, Miss Freda Armstrong and the guest of honor, Miss Ebbinghouse. Miss Wright served a delicious two course lunch.

Birthday Surprise

On Friday evening, many of their friends and neighbors, went swooping down onto Mr. and Mrs. Walter Juergensmeir and subjected them to the tickling joys of a surprise party. The occasion of the gentle reminder, was that Mrs. Juergensmeir had a birthday. The ladies of the crowd took along the lunch, and the men a handsome corner chair, the latter presented to the goodly hostess to give her additional comfort in the future. During the evening cards were played and other games, and a joyous time was had.

Mission Band

The Mission Band of the Junior Society of the Presbyterian church met last Saturday at the home of its president, Helen Heft. After its business meeting, the superintendent, Mrs. C. R. Wilson, gave a continuation of the interesting talk begun at the last meeting, on Africa. This talk is instructive as well as interesting. The violin duet by Grace Bowen and Helena Kirker was enjoyed by all, and Miss Laurel Heft with a sweet voice sang "Songs of the Night." During the social hour which followed, light refreshments were served. The Band is a newly organized society, this being the second meeting. They now have $2.35 in the treasury and the society is growing rapidly. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Robin Rochester.

Young Married People's Dancing Club

On Wednesday evening the young married people's dancing club will give a dance in Red Men's Hall. This is a newly organized club and the dance of Wednesday night will be their first.

Masquerade

The masquerade social given by the Maccabees last Thursday night was quite a success socially and financially. There were about five hundred present and over fifty masked persons. Mrs. M. H. Cherrington was awarded the prize for the prettiest dressed lady. The following program was enjoyed:

Piano Solo Mrs. Ed. Myers
Recitation Miss Lou Bowen
Song Blackston brothers
Recitation Mrs. Parsons
Two instrumental selections Childrens Orchestra
Reading Stella Webb
Vocal Solo Ruth Easterling

Foster-McKinstry

Mr. Ray B. Foster, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Foster, 397 North Monroe avenue, and Miss Lillian Ruth McKinstry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. McKinstry of Logan, formerly of North Garfield avenue, Columbus, were quietly married at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. L. L. Magee, of the Mt. Vernon avenue M. E. church, and left the same day for a trip to Cleveland and Buffalo. They will be at home to their friends after the first of December at Logan, Ohio.

Nondescript

The Nondescript Club met at the home of Mrs. Chris Juergensmeir, Thursday. The program was a Thanksgiving one. Mrs. Strawn gave a magazine reading and Mrs. Morgan a paper on the "True Meaning of Thanksgiving," both of which were very much enjoyed. Mrs. Juergensmeir then presented a contest "Courtship in the Vegetable Kingdom," in which Mrs. Adam Lutz won the club prize, a china creamer and sugar set. Mrs. Cowell secured the visitors prize, set of salt and pepper shakers. The hostess then served a four course six o'clock dinner, assisted by Mrs. Ed Smith. The following persons were guests: Mrs. W. H. Cowell, Mrs. Dr. Raney, Mrs. Will White, Mrs. Ed Smith, Miss Smith and Miss Lutz.

Jolly Dozen

Mrs. M. H. Cherrington gave a prettily appointed six o'clock dinner Friday evening at her cozy home on Main street, in compliment to the members of the Jolly Dozen Pedro Club. Covers were laid for sixteen and an elaborate four course dinner served. Before dinner a contest was presented and prize taken by Miss Josephine Henderson. The place cards were foreign names, corresponding to those of the guests. After dinner, music was enjoyed until 8 o'clock, when Pedro was played and honors taken by Mrs. Bell Mill, a solid silver meat fork; Mrs. Dr. Eastman, second, a Christopher Columbus clock; Miss Agnes White, fancy pin cushion; Mrs. Ralph Starcher, hair receiver and Miss Mary Ward, of New Lexington, china hat pin holder.

Social Circle

The Social Circle ladies held their usual Thanksgiving banquet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Pettit Tuesday evening. Once a year at Thanksgiving time these ladies invite their husbands to join them in a feast and give thanks for such thoughtful wives and good cooks, and the ladies in turn are very thankful that they have such good men. Covers were laid for thirty-eight. The place cards betokened the Thanksgiving tide, those of the gentlemen containing a cigar tied with a pink ribbon and those for the ladies a stick of pink candy tied with green, pink and green being the club colors. The dining rooms were beautiful with their decorations of pink carnations, ferns and smilax. An elaborate four course dinner was served at 6:30, by the following four charming Misses: Mary Pettit, Grace Lehman, Charlotte Kessler and Margaret Rochester. After dinner the evening was spent socially, the guests being favored with vocal selections by Mr. Charles Breene, Mr. Bruce Dollison and little Mary Breene. Mrs. Frank Muehmore gave a fine reading. Mrs. Whitman, of Columbus was an out-of-town guest.

NEITHER TEAM SCORED.

Another Game Thanksgiving Afternoon.

The Logan High School foot ball team played the Wellston High School team last Saturday afternoon at the ball park, before a fair sized crowd, but neither side scored during the time of play. The Logan boys played their usual steady game and had the ball in Wellston's territory nearly all the time. Gallagher starred for the visitors, he making two thirds of the gains for their side. It is rumored that he has played professional ball with Parkersburg. Buckland, who has played a number of games, was taken out, he failing to qualify as a member of the High School, Dollison taking his place. The following was the line-up:

Wellston	Position	Logan
Billingsley	right end	F. Warner
Pope	right tackle	Blacksten
Kimberling	right guard	H. Warner
Potter	center	Tritsch
Cole	left guard	Dollison
McClain	left tackle	Bort
Leach	left end	McManigal
Gallagher	qtr. back	Krieg, capt
Serratt	half back	Stone Stiers
O'Brien	full back	Brown

The All-Stars of this city will play the High School team on Thanksgiving afternoon at the ball park. Anyone interested in foot ball cannot afford to be absent. Game called at 2:30.
